

Not Your Grandmother's Church, but Will It Be Your Grandkids' Church?
Discussion Questions

1. What are the practices in and around your faith you want to pass on to the next generation?
2. What are the practices from a younger generation you wish were included more in your religious environments?
3. According to Andrew Lester, hope is centered on the future tense. For the future you see in your family, your community, and your church, what is the shape or shade of hope for you?
